

BXP Announces Strategic Dispositions Totaling More than $1.0 Billion

January 14, 2026

Demonstrates Significant Progress Toward Multi-Year $1.9 Billion Disposition Goal

BOSTON--(BUSINESS WIRE)--Jan. 14, 2026-- BXP (NYSE: BXP), the largest publicly traded developer, owner, and manager of premier workplaces in the United States, announced today that it has completed property sales with aggregate net proceeds of more than $1.0 billion, marking significant progress toward the 2025 through 2027 strategic asset sales plan outlined at BXP's Investor Day in September 2025. Dispositions through year end 2025 totaled approximately $845 million, and two additional sales closed in January 2026, bringing total net proceeds from the sales to more than $1.0 billion to date.

The completed sales include:

- Seven suburban land parcels across the Boston, San Francisco, and Washington, DC regions for aggregate net proceeds of approximately $220 million,
- Two residential properties in Cambridge, Massachusetts and Reston, Virginia, for aggregate net proceeds of approximately $405 million, and
- Seven non-core office and life sciences properties in Needham, Massachusetts and South San Francisco, California, for aggregate net proceeds of approximately $400 million.

"Optimizing our portfolio is a key strategic priority of our action plan," said Owen Thomas, Chairman and CEO, BXP. "Our asset sales program is designed to both raise capital to fund our industry-leading premier workplace developments, where we can achieve more attractive returns, as well as increase our premier workplace portfolio concentration in central business districts in our core gateway markets."
