

Boston Properties Appoints Douglas T. Linde to Its Board of Directors

January 21, 2010 6:00 PM ET

BOSTON, Jan 21, 2010 (BUSINESS WIRE) -- Boston Properties, Inc. (NYSE: BXP), a real estate investment trust, announced today that Douglas T. Linde has been appointed to fill the vacancy on its Board of Directors resulting from the recent passing of Edward H. Linde. Douglas T. Linde also currently serves as President of the Company.

The Company's Chairman, Mortimer B. Zuckerman, said "Doug joined the Company in 1997 and his expertise, energy and leadership have enabled him to assume greater responsibilities over time, including his previous role as Chief Financial Officer and his current role as President. He will contribute greatly to the strategic focus necessary for us to achieve long-term success for our stockholders and we are delighted to welcome him to the Board."

Boston Properties is a fully integrated, self-administered and self-managed real estate investment trust that develops, redevelops, acquires, manages, operates and owns a diverse portfolio of Class A office properties and one hotel. The Company is one of the largest owners and developers of Class A office properties in the United States, concentrated in five markets - Boston, Midtown Manhattan, Washington, D.C., San Francisco and Princeton, N.J.
